“The coffin was good polished elm with brass mounts. The deceased was buried with full Military Honours, the coffin being draped with the Australian flag and conveyed to the graveside on a gun carriage, preceded by a Firing Party and Band from No. 1 Australian Command Depot. Six of Pte Andrews’s’ unit comrades acted as Pallbearers. The funeral was attended by 4 Officers and 50 Non Commissioned Officers and Men from No. 1 Command Depot, Sutton Veny. The Headquarters of the A.I.F. Depots in United Kingdom were represented at the funeral. The utmost care and attention is being devoted where possible to the graves of our fallen soldiers. It is understood that photographs are being taken as soon as practicable for transmission to next-of-kin.”

The Red Cross Wounded & Missing File for Pte William Thomas Andrews contains the following letter from the Assistant Matron, The Military Hospital, Sutton Veny:

“Pte Andrew died of Influenza and was buried at Sutton Veny. He was ill only a few days here, and was so ill when admitted that there was no opportunity of learning much about him. This epidemic had been severe and so fatal that it has been a very sad time, and we very much regret that we have been unable to get more particulars. Everything was done for him that was possible, but it was not possible for him to tell about his home.”

Pte William Thomas Andrews requested in his Will, dated 7th June, 1917, that all his personal estate he bequeath to his wife – Mrs Annie Andrews.

Private W. T. Andrews is commemorated in the Hall of Memory Commemorative Area at the Australian War Memorial, Canberra, Australia on Panel 31.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Pte William Thomas Andrews does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
