Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

A letter dated 5th July, 1921 was sent to Mrs L. Cameron at 49 Emmaline St, Croxton, Victoria, (mother of late Pte J. L. Cameron) advising her that previous communications from the Defence Department regarding the inscription on the headstone of her son – Pte J. L. Cameron at Sutton Veny, had not been acted upon. Non –receipt of a reply within 21days would indicate that she desired no further action.

Pte John Leslie Cameron does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
