“Am writing a letter to Mrs Cerini, which I will enclose in this if you would kindly forward it on to her. The address was sent away & I was waiting to get it to write, as we realize what it means to the relatives to know all about their boys & how they meet with their death. I nursed him most of the time, so understand exactly how he died. Will leave the letter opened, if you care to see it. Am sorry to say the Australians stationed round here feel the cold & damp very much, consequently seem to be very much more affected than the English troops.”

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Pte William Charles Cerini does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
