Mrs Ida Cunningham, remarried widow of the late Sapper Nuriel Ivor Evans, contacted Base Records in June, 1924 in reply to a letter she had received & stated her late husband's name was “Nuriel Ivor Evans” & any letters or parcels could reach her at 33 Peel Street, Collingwood, Victoria.

Base Records contacted Mrs Ida Cunningham, 33 Peel Street, Collingwood, Victoria, remarried widow of the late Sapper Nuriel Ivor Evans, in July, 1933 to advise "Through the kind instrumentality of Mrs Crowle of 2 Johnston Street, Bath, England, I am again forwarding you as next-of-kin of the late No. 3469 Sapper N. I. Evans, 6th Field Company Engineers, a copy of "Bath and Wilts Chronicle and Herald" featuring this year's Anzac Day Commemoration Service at Bath (Locksbrook) Cemetery, which I trust comes safely to hand."

Newspaper item – Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, Bath, Somerset, England – 29 April, 1933:

ANZAC DAY

The annual service in commemoration of Anzac Day locally will be held on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in Locksbrook Cemetery, around the memorial to the men who died in the Bath War Hospital and were buried there.

Major L. J. Castle, O.B.E., M.C., and Dr Paget Thurstan will give addresses and, as formerly, the Rev. J. C. Church will conduct the service. Two buglers from the 4th Battn. the Somerset Light Infantry will sound the "Last Post" and the "Reveille". Mrs Crowle, who arranges Bath's annual tribute to the gallant Anzacs, would be glad to receive flowers to place on the graves and on the Anzac Memorial. Mr A. Smith's "Bailbrook Mission Church Choir" and the Boys' Brigade will lead in the singing "Onward, Christian soldiers" and "For all the saints."

A slip of paper marked "The Bath Herald" Newspaper of 26th April, 1924 was despatched to N.O.K. in July, 1924.

Base Records contacted the Deputy Commissioner, Repatriation Commission, Melbourne in August, 1937 requesting the present address of Mrs Ida Cunningham, remarried widow of the late Sapper Nuriel Ivor Evans, formerly residing at 33 Peel Street, Collingwood, Victoria. A reply was sent "no record held other than above address."

Front Inscription

Tasmania`s World War One Roll of Honour, 1914 - 1918

The names of 3165 soldiers, sailors and airmen who were Tasmanian by birth or residence and died from their service in WW1 are commemorated on these walls. Their names appear alphabetically, grouped by the year of death. These men served with Australian, New Zealand and British units.

"What these men did nothing can alter now. The good and the bad, the greatness and the smallness of their story will stand. Whatever of glory it contains nothing now can lessen. It rises, as it will always rise, above the mists of ages, a monument to great hearted men; and for their nation, a possession forever. "

IN MEMORIAM

Died on Active Service

EVANS – In sad but loving memory of our dear son, Nuriel Ivor Evans, who died of wounds at Bath Hospital, England, on May 15, 1918.

We shall not see him here again

To us he may not come;

But when at last we shall attain

The heavenly place, be his dear face

The first to greet us in Thy grace,

And bid us "Welcome Home."

Inserted by his loving parents, Powell and Mary Evans, 63 Liverpool-street, his wife, little daughter, brother and sisters.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Private N. I. Evans does have a personal inscription on his headstone.

Locksbrook Cemetery, Bath, Somerset, England

Bath (Locksbrook) Cemetery contains 90 First World War graves, 44 of which (mainly from the war hospital) form a plot. The 32 Second World War graves are scattered throughout the cemetery.

The following extract of a letter from Administrative Headquarters, A.I.F. London, to Base Records, Melbourne, in July, 1918 was found in the Service Record file of the late Driver John McClymont, 3612, who was buried in Locksbrook Cemetery, Bath on 12th October, 1917. He was the first of seven Australians who ended up being buried in Locksbrook Cemetery. The letter reads: "Late 3612 Dvr McClymont, J. 1st Bde Hqrs, late 2nd Bn, A.I.F – The Municipal Corporation of the City of Bath, which is the Burial Authority for the Locksbrook Cemetery, Bath, has very generously placed at the disposal of the A.I.F. in the finest part of the Cemetery a little Australian plot of 8 graves free of charge. Prior to this the local Undertaker who was charged by the Hospital upon instructions of these Headquarters to procure a separate single grave in virgin soil made a selection in a portion of the Cemetery that did not appeal to the representative of these Headquarters who attended the funeral. Accordingly, after discussion with our representative the Corporation offered us the little Australian plot which has been appreciatively accepted.

The Town Clerk and Superintendent of the Cemetery further undertook that, subject to our obtaining the necessary licence from the Home Office, the Cemetery Authority would exhume the body of McClymont from the unsuitable position in which it was buried and re-inter it in the Australian Section.

The licence having been readily accorded, the Corporation has now carried their promise into effect,....."

FALLEN ANZACS

IMPESSIVE SERVICE AT LOCKSBROOK CEMETERY

Sunday was Anzac Day, the fifth anniversary of the landing of the 29th Division in Gallipoli, and it was fittingly celebrated by memorial services in many churches in honour of the officers and men who fell in that desperate enterprise. Wreaths and flowers were placed on the graves of Australians and New Zealanders who died in England, and there was a simple, yet impressive service at Locksbrook Cemetery, where the seven brave Anzacs who died in the Bath War Hospital. It had been organised by Mrs Crowle, to whom had been given many beautiful flowers for placing on the graves. The Rev. W. H. Edwards, of Combe Down, conducted a brief memorial service and gave an address, in which he recalled the gallantry of our overseas soldiers. The hymn, "Peace, perfect peace," was feelingly sung.

Among those present were the Rev. H. W. and Mrs Doudney, Miss Freaan, Mrs Morgan, Mrs Meyer, Miss West, Mrs, Miss and Master Crowle, Miss Millard, Mr Eyres, Mrs Parker, Miss Stoward, Miss Symons, Mr Dawson, Mr Smith, Miss Mills etc.

Mrs Crowle informs us that she hopes to form a committee of resident Australians and other, whose object will be to see that in future the Anzac Day Pilgrimage Day is better organised in Bath. Copies of the paper containing a report of the in memoriam service will be sent to the relations of the fallen men in Australia and New Zealand.

(Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, Somerset, England – 1 May, 1920)

Reports of the Anzac Day Ceremonies held at Locksbrook Cemetery, Bath were noted in the Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, Bath, Somerset, England for the following years:
