Chaplain W. G. Bradley, who conducted the service reports:- “ I visited Dvr Henry a number os times when he was unconscious in the above Hospital. Once he remembered his sister Annie at Geelong, but was only conscious (while I attended him) for about a minute. He did not seem to remember anyone else. Not having been attached to his Unit, I did not previously know him. I am told that he passed away quietly and up to the last was unconscious. I have every reason to believe that he received every attention possible from those in the Hospital. His body was interred with full Military Honors by an escort from his own Unit consisting of one Officer and thirty other Ranks and Band.”*

connection with St. John's Presbyterian Church, Lockhart, and was for some years the Superintendent of the Sunday School and also an active member of the choir. Writing to Miss Webb from Poowong, Victoria, where his mother and family reside, his sister said:- "Just a line as I know you will feel for us in our trouble. We had word saying our dear Ern had died in Sutton Vimy Military Hospital, England, cause not stated, but they are investigating. We think it was from the effects of a bad cold which he had when he last wrote after he returned from Scotland. We do not know whether he has even been to France or not but there is a mail in to-morrow."

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veney. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

From letters in Driver Henry's Service record file - the following information was found in a letter dated 7th March, 1924 to District Finance Officer, Melbourne from Base Records :- "..... prior to the original issue of Memorial Forms "A" from this office, a communication was addressed to the Secretary, Department of Defence, by Mrs Henry on 9/9/19, submitting a verse for engraving on the permanent headstone. Formal acknowledgement was sent to writer on 20/9/19 wherein she was informed that "very shortly the Department will send out to next-of-kin a form of application upon which can be set out the private inscription to be placed on headstones over war graves overseas."

A form was duly issued on 8/12/19 and on completion was returned to the Base Records Office for transmission to London. Whatever inscription was embodied thereon was of course accepted as finally indicating applicant's wishes in the matter, this notwithstanding any previous choice, and the fullest opportunity was afforded Mrs Henry at the time of re-submitting her original verse or epitaph if so desired. This however, she neglected to do, and on the contrary agreed to pay the cost of inscribing the following words, viz:- “ In Memory Of The Dear Son Of Mrs Henry Of Poowong, Victoria.” the cost of which is now claimed by the Commission. I may add that Mrs Henry’s original selection somewhat approximates that stated to have been furnished the Curator of Sutton Veny Churchyard, but it is not clear what jurisdiction that official would have in the matter.”

In a letter from District Finance Officer to Department of Defence, dated 20th February, 1924 reads:”... Mrs Henry states that the inscription she authorised to be placed on the headstone is totally different to the inscription she is being charged with, and there refuses to pay pending further information. “The verse I sent to the Curator of Sutton Veny Cemetery to be added to his present inscription was:

*“He heard the call for King and Country
but the King of Kings desired him for a higher purpose.”*

Driver Ernest Charles Henry does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
