A death for H. Moore, aged 29, was registered in the March quarter, 1919 in the district of Warminster, Wiltshire.

Lance Corporal Henry Edwin Walter Moore was buried on 10th February, 1919 in St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny - Grave no. 50. From the burial report of L/Cpl. Moore - Coffin was Elm with Brass Mounts – Deceased was buried with full Military Honours, the coffin draped with the Australian flag being borne to the graveside on a Gun Carriage preceded by a Firing Party from the 2nd Australian Training Brigade Codford. Six of deceased's late Unit comrades supported the Pall. A number of Officers, N.C.O.'s and Men of deceased's late Unit followed the remains and were present at the graveside ceremony. Headquarters A.I.F. Depots in United Kingdom were represented at the funeral.

The Red Cross Wounded & Missing file contains a letter from A/ Registrar for O.C. No. 1 Australian General Hospital, Sutton Veny which reads: "L/Cpl. Moore was admitted from the Overseas Training Btn of this area on the 31 Jan. 1919 diagnosed Influenza. Later L/Cpl. Moore developed Broncho Pneumonia. The above mentioned died on the 6th Feb. '19 at 12.10 p.m."

Mrs W. H. E. Moore wrote a letter to Colonel Luscombe Defence Dept on 20th February, 1919 asking "would you give me the full particulars of my husband's death No. 3428 Driver W. H. E. Moore. Why wasn't I notified instead of his mother. I am his next-of-kin & his wife. I want to know where he died, whether in England or where....." Base Records replied stating "..... you will have already have received official advice of the regrettable report of your husband As you were previously informed, the late soldier's records here showed that he enlisted as a single man a next-of-kin, mother, resident in Prahran. The notification of his death was therefore despatched to her, but when it was discovered by your further correspondence that you were not aware of the regrettable news, action was at once taken to have the report suitably conveyed to you...Your name has now been noted on your husband's records and your Marriage Certificate is returned herewith under registered cover."

A Statutory Declaration was written by Alice Ellen Moore of Bunyip, Victoria on 25th February, 1919 before a Justice of Peace declaring that she was the "legal wife of Walter Henry Edwin Moore, deceased, that I was married on the 27th September, 1915 at Fitzroy and that I am not divorced or have I legally separated from him."

Mrs W. H. E. Moore wrote a letter to Officer in Charge on 8th May, 1919 asking if there was a mistake with her husband's death as he was not a Lance Corporal. A reply was sent ".....regret to state there appears no reason to doubt the authenticity of the report that your husband the late No. 3428 Lance Corporal H. E. W. Moore, 4th Machine Gun Battalion, died on 6/2/19 of broncho pneumonia at 1st Australian General Hospital.....The records show that your husband was appointed to rank of Lance-Corporal on 31/10/18."

Walter Henry Edwin Moore requested in his Will dated 23rd July, 1915 that all his real & personal Estate be left to his mother – Mrs Elizabeth Moore. This Will was later annulled.

A letter was written by Mrs E. Moore, mother of late Lance Corporal H. E. W. Moore, in July, 1919 to Base Records requesting a photo of her son's grave & "Though he married shortly before embarking, I am his widowed mother and feel that a share is due to me of whatever may be left. I understand some money is outstanding and if you can do anything in the matter so that I may receive a share I shall be most grateful." Base Records replied that a photograph would be forwarded to her when a copy is received & that the portion of her letter with reference to financial matters had been referred to the Military Paymaster, Victoria Barracks, Melbourne.

Walter Henry Edwin Moore

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Lance Corporal Henry Edwin Walter Moore does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.
