HEROES OF THE GREAT WAR

ROSENTHAL— In sad but loving memory of our dearly loved brother, Private Cyril H. R. Rosenthal, who died in England, September 4, 1918.

No one knows the silent heartache,
Only those can tell
Who have lost their darling loved one
Without a last farewell.
To have, to love, and then to part,
Is the saddest thing of a human heart.

Dearly loved, sadly missed — Inserted by his loving sister, Myrtle, and brother, Arthur.

ROSENTHAL — In loving memory of our dear brother, Cyril, who died in England, September 4th, 1918.

Could we, his sisters, have clasped his hand,
The brother we loved so well,
Or kissed his dear brow, when death was near.
And wished our brother farewell.
When we see your comrades returning,
Our hearts are filled with pain,
To think you are not there, dear brother,
And will never come home again.

—Inserted by his loving sisters, Sylvia and Violet.

ROSENTHAL — In loving memory of our dear brother, Cyril, died 4th September, 1918.

When you hear of brave lads dying;
I know some don't care; they're not your own;
But just supposing you lose a loved one.
That is the time that it strikes home.
So dearly loved, so sadly missed.
— Inserted by his loving sister, Sis, and brother-in-law Will, and little nieces.

(Chronicle, Adelaide, Sth Australia – Saturday 13 September, 1919)

HEROES OF THE GREAT WAR

ROSENTHAL - In loving memory of our dear brother, Cyril, died at Sutton Veny, September 4, 1918.

How we prayed and wept with longing,
Waiting for the news of joy
That would speed the ship to harbour
Bringing home our soldier boy.
But two years have dolled above us,
Grief has over mastered joy;
For our hearts are ever mourning
For our absent soldier boy.
Dearly loved, sadly missed.

— Inserted by his loving sisters and brothers.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.
