Newspaper Reports

THROWN FROM A TRANSPORT

Sergeant Schiebel, of the Mt Victoria Police Station, has received, from Recruiting-Sergeant J. Hedley, of Busselton, W.A., a letter in a bottle, thrown from a transport by Signaller J. F. Schiebel, with the request that the note be forwarded to his father.

Sergeant Hedley remarked, "I think it was a very lucky old bottle to work its way through all those reefs near the Leeuwin,"

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at Durrington War Graves Cemetery. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Pte J. F. V. Scheibel does have a personal inscription on his headstone.

Durrington Cemetery, Wiltshire, England

Durrington Cemetery contains burials of both wars. The 204 First World War burials were mostly from nearby Larkhill Camp. Many of the graves are of Australian servicemen and there is a separate Australian memorial in the cemetery. The Second World War burials number 22. In addition to the war graves, there are a number of post-war service graves in the cemetery, mostly of the Royal Air Force.

(Information from CWGC)

There are 141 Australian WW1 War Graves located in Durrington Cemetery, Wiltshire, England.
