FALLEN AND WOUNDED

BALLARAT AND DISTRICT MEN

PRIVATE LES STEVENS

The sad news reached Mr and Mrs T. Stevens, of Waterloo, on Thursday, from the Defence Department, that their son, Pte Les Stevens, a member of Beaufort's second unit, had died of pneumonia in England.

(The Ballarat Courier, Victoria – Friday 8th September, 1916)

FOR THE EMPIRE

The sad news was communicated to Mr and Mrs T. Stevens, of Waterloo, by the Defence Department on Thursday, that their son, Pte Leslie Stevens, had died of pneumonia in England. Private Stevens was an estimable, upright young man being 21 years of age and a member of Beaufort's second unit. He lived at Waterloo for the greater part of his life, and was respected by all who knew him. Private Stevens was a member of a large family, and great sympathy is felt for the bereaved relatives.

(Riponshire Advocate, Victoria – Saturday 9th September, 1916)

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at Durrington War Graves Cemetery. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Pte L. T. Stevens does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
